ReBuairtel 1/2/73 to Seattle, Denver, and Minneapolis.

The color sketch prepared of Unsub in captioned case, which is marked "B" and dated 1/2/73, is considered by Exhibits Section at this date to be the best likeness obtainable from descriptive data available. The original artist's sketch, with and without sunglasses and designated as "A" sketch, was a black and white rendering of Unsub prepared immediately following hijacking. Subsequently the color sketch, with and without sunglasses, was developed and marked as "B" sketch. Although a divergence of opinion regarding certain characteristics has appeared in descriptions given by the various witnesses, the consensus indicates that a good likeness of Unsub is shown by the artist's sketch and that the "B" sketch with the added dimension of color more accurately shows the Unsub's age and overall likeness.

In view of the numerous contacts with the witnesses who supplied the descriptive data from which the sketch was prepared and the lapse of time since they observed the hijacker, it is felt no constructive purpose can be served by further attempts at modification based on contact with these same witnesses.

Re attached Portland letter to Seattle, 3/29/73

The Seattle letter to Portland dated 3/21/73 was not sent with attached serial 4563 but it is recalled that the writer determined when covering the original lead that the previous manager was someplace in Alaska, and efforts to identify this man met with negative results.

It is felt that the only way to identify the former manager and secure his present location is through the [redacted] mentioned in Portland letter which is attached.

With no other serials in possession of the writer in this matter it is requested that the matter be reviewed and if the lead appears to have any potential that Portland be directed to contact either [redacted] the original source of the information or the [redacted]. It is felt that in a matter of this type that the [redacted] would not have to be alerted to the source of the information being [redacted].

ReSEairtel to Albuquerque, April 3, 1973.

On 4/2/73, a memo to all agents was disseminated within the Phoenix Field Division, using the newly issued artist's conception of the unknown subject. However, contact with logical sources and informants has not resulted in any positive information or investigative leads to date.

An evaluation of the leads set forth for the Phoenix Division in Denver letter to the Bureau, dated 2/21/73, indicates they were not initially set forth to develop information to answer questions regarding [REDACTED] as set out in Seattle airtel to Albuquerque, dated 4/3/73.

Therefore, the Phoenix Division will not be covering these leads unless otherwise requested by office of origin.

[REDACTED] could furnish no other description of [REDACTED] or add anything to the information he furnished in the referenced memorandum.

Dear Sir:

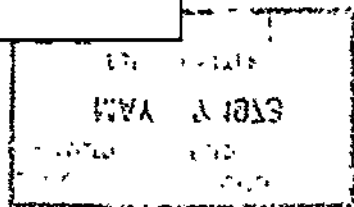

The "D. B. Cooper" hijacking case still seems to be hanging in air --- unsolved. The money has never come into circulation; no credible reports of the "presence" of the man; ground searches have not produced any positive evidence.

Which brings me to my reason for writing. Have any underwater searches been conducted, i. e., Riffe Lake in Lewis Co., Lake Merwin or Yale Reservoir in Columbia Co., or Swift Reservoir in Shamana Co. Or possibly Spirit Lake in Shamana County?

If an extensive search will reveal "D. B. Cooper" entangled in two fouled chutes with the "money case" (bag?)
tashed to his body in one of the afore-mentioned bodies of waters.

I am not a seer --- or whatevers --- but a certainty of feeling that has come to for no apparent reason makes me sure this is where he will be found.

Sincerely yours,

SUB D

5/30/73 information was received from Sheriff WILLIAM WEISTER, Lewis County SO. Chehalis, Washington which caused contact with [redacted] Washington. X

b6
b7c

[redacted] advised that several days ago he had sighted a parachute in the trees in the vicinity of Ryan Lake near the Goat Rock area. The chute appeared to be orange or red and white. He went to a vantage point the next day with a spotting scope and visually observed the chute which is high up in a tall tree in a very isolated area with no roads nearby. This viewing revealed that it was an orange and white chute and it appeared to have some type of box hanging from the rigging. It also was not the size which could be used by a person descending from a plane. Investigation disclosed that the Forest and Weather Services have on occasion dropped such chutes for fire and weather observations.

b7c

In view of the information set out above and since the area in which the chute is located is not within a reasonable distance of the flight path of the hijacked aircraft it is felt no further investigation should be conducted in this matter.

The above is being furnished for file information in the event an inquiry concerning this incident is made of the Seattle Division.

Re Seattle airtel to Portland dated 4/20/73.

Contact with [redacted] Multnomah County Sheriff's Office (MCSO), Portland, Oregon, discloses the fact there was a death in Multnomah County of one TOM COLLINS, which death had been investigated by MCSO. [redacted] confirmed that no information had been developed indicating that COLLINS' death was a homicide. He stated that the [redacted] referred to in referenced airtel is [redacted] who is [redacted] of Corvallis and Salem, Oregon. [redacted] expressed surprise at the story related by [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] is fully aware of his identity, as [redacted] TOM COLLINS. Further, she is well aware that although [redacted] he does not fit the description of the unsub in this matter, being short and heavy set.

In view of the above information, it is suggested it would appear [redacted] is attempting to get the FBI involved in an investigation [redacted] death for reasons of her own and in view of this fact no further action appears warranted pursuant to this lead.

Re memo of ASAC JOSEPH E. O'CONNELL, 4/24/73

Numerous attempts were made to contact a person referred to as [redacted] through the telephone number given. He had moved from [redacted] mentioned in the memo and the name [redacted] was not known at that location.

He was eventually contacted on 6/14/73 through investigation at Woodland and contact with a person found [redacted]. The individual's name is actually [redacted] and he now lives at [redacted] in Woodland.

Previously information was furnished by [redacted] which was made the subject of a memo of the writer to captioned file. The memo concerned information [redacted] is supposed to have received concerning an unsub being known by certain associates of his. In the file there should be information from the Portland Division concerning [redacted] interview by a Portland agent about 2 months ago. The person who was supposed to have information on hijack subject was [redacted] Woodland, Wn.

[redacted] advised he gave all the information he had received from [redacted] to the Portland agent and the only new information he has is that in response to a request by the Portland agent that he recontact [redacted] he did so. However [redacted] now says he knows nothing about the matter and in fact wasn't even where he said he had been when the information re the hijacker was secured. [redacted] advised he feels that [redacted] concocted the whole story and now sees that his story could get him into trouble and has disclaimed all knowledge of such an incident as he originally described.

Personal observation of [redacted] and manner in which he answered questions re this matter (very evasive and cautiously) leads the writer to believe that he was part of this concocted story.

Recommend no further investigation in this matter.

On June 1, 1973, BILL CLAUSNER, Sheriff of Stevenson, Washington, advised that $480 worth of $20 bills, 1950 series, were found in a home in North Bonneyville, Washington. CLAUSNER advised an elderly lady was living in the home and moved to Goldendale, Washington, to be nearer her family. The elderly lady is named Mrs. MIDLAND, according to CLAUSNER.

Subsequent to her move, an envelope was discovered in the vacant home containing the $20 bills. CLAUSNER advised all of the $20 bill serial numbers were run through NCIC, as well as compared with serial numbers on the D. B. COOPER ransom list. There was no match either in NCIC or with the D. It is noted all the D. B. COOPER ransom serial numbers have been entered into NCIC.
